

The Philistines Come Against Lehi

Judges 15:10-19

Script for a Play

Men of Judah: Why have you come up against us?

Philistines: We have come to arrest Samson....

Three thousand men of Judah go down the Samson.

Men of Judah: What is this you have done to us?

Samson: As they did to me, so I have done to them.

Men of Judah: We have come down to arrest you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines.

Samson: Swear to me that you will not kill me....

Men of Judah: ...We will tie you...but we will...not kill you.

They bind Samson and bring him up from the rock.

The Philistines come shouting against him.

The Spirit of the Lord comes mightily upon Samson, and his bonds break loose from his hands.

Samson finds a fresh jawbone of a donkey and kills a thousand men with it.

After he has killed a thousand men,..

Samson: With the jawbone of a donkey I have slain a thousand men!

Samson becomes very thirsty.

Samson (to the Lord): Shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the [Philistines]?

God splits the hollow place, water comes out, and Samson drinks.
