

Sequencing the Story of the Paralyzed Man

(Mark 2:1-12)

Cut strips apart and put them in the correct order to tell the story of the Lord healing this man.

Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

[The Lord] entered Capernaum...and it was heard that He was in the house.

Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic who was carried by four men. And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed and walk?'"

And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, "Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

Immediately many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them.

When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

"But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic, "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."
