

The Journey to Jerusalem

*“Behold your King is coming to you.”
(Matthew 21:5)*

This lovely drawing by Ruth (Davis) Gyllenhaal shows the journey of the Lord from the village of Bethphage (at the Mount of Olives) toward Jerusalem. The people waving palm branches and laying garments along the roadway were welcoming the Lord as their King. We, too, can welcome the Lord as our King.

NOTE: Because the original project is a large one, it is separated into 4 panels here.

Suggested Procedure:

1. Color each of the 4 panels, using colored pencils or fine-point colored markers.
2. Fold each panel at the dotted lines along the sides.
3. Attach the panels together, using glue or tape or paper clips.
4. Display for Palm Sunday and Easter.
