

RELIGION PROJECTS

Designed by Lori Odhner, Wendy Hoo, and Sonia Werner

Text: Psalm 119

Subject: A Psalm About the Word

Dole Notes: Volume: 3 Chapter: 84 Page: 402

Age Group: Beginners: 3-5

basic supplies:

materials:

- musical instruments (piano, guitar, autoharp, triangle, drums, maracca...)
- tape recorder (optional)

teacher preparation:

- Choose possible verses for putting to music ~ vivid, easily learned *
- If you are not a musician, you may want to ask the help of one
- * (retranslate into simple language)
- read introduction of Chapter 13, Vol 3, of Dole's Notes

procedure:

- Using the instruments for accompaniment, invite the children to spontaneously sing your (or other) verses of the psalm.
- This age loves music and will probably surprise you with their ability to put the WORD to music. Try to be as spontaneous as they are, and have fun!
- Tape record the session only if it does not distract the children

With my whole heart I have looked for you!
Your words I have hidden in my heart. ♪

I will not forget Your word! ♪

Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things from Your law! ♪

My soul melts from heaviness...

My hands I will lift up to Your commandments!

♪ Your word has given me life! ♪

The earth is full of Your mercy, Oh LORD!

I believe your commandments! ♪

The law of your mouth is better than gold!

Oh, how I love Your law! ♪

♪ Your words are sweeter than honey!!

Your word is a lamp to my feet!

I hope in Your word! ♪

Hold me up, and I shall be safe!

I am Your servant!

etc.

notes: It's the last class of the year ~
-make it special!

MUSIC: first songs: }
Lori's tape: } none
Liturgy: }