“Peace be with you; do not fear, you shall not die.”
“I shall put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said.”
“But now the Lord has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.”
“Do not be angry with me, but let me speak just once more: Let me test I pray, just once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, but on all the ground let there be dew.”
“The Lord is with you, you mighty man of valor!”
“Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has torn down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the wooden image that was beside it.”
“Then the angel of the Lord put out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread.”
“O my Lord, how can I save Israel? Indeed my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.”
“Would you plead for Baal? Would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he is god, let him plead for himself because his altar has been torn down!”
“Tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the wooden image that is beside it; and build an altar to the Lord your God on top of this rock...and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down.”
