

Adonijah Story Line

Review the story of Adonijah. Decide how Adonijah might have felt at each point in the story. Draw a line up and down from left to right to show how Adonijah's feelings changed during the story. When you have finished Adonijah, draw a line in another color to show how Solomon might have felt. Label each line with the person's name.

Very happy, hopeful, eager or content
Rather happy, hopeful, eager or content
A little happy, hopeful, eager or content
Neutral or mixed feelings
A little angry, afraid, sad or depressed
Rather angry, afraid, sad or depressed
Very angry, afraid, sad or depressed
	David is old and failing in health.	Adonijah decides to make himself king.	Adonijah has a feast to proclaim himself king.	Nathan tells Bathsheba about Adonijah's	Bathsheba tells David about Adonijah's	Nathan confirms what Bathsheba is saying.	David gives orders to his men.	Solomon becomes King and everyone	The messenger tells Adonijah about Solomon.	The guests at the feast all run away in panic.	Adonijah flees to the altar.	Solomon forgives and warns Adonijah.	Adonijah goes home.

SOLOMON BECOMES KING