

A CASKET OF JEWELS

Each story in the Word is a like a treasure chest full of precious “jewels”—so many wonderful things to learn that we can go on learning from the Word forever.

I rejoice at Your Word
As one who finds great treasure.

(Psalm 119:162)

You may want to read “The Casket of Jewels” in The Golden Heart and Other Stories by Amena Pendleton Haines (to purchase this book visit the New Church Bookstore at <http://www.newchurch.org/>). This story is about an old man who treasures his book of the Word so much that he called it his casket of jewels. Read about the wonderful gift an angel brings him.

If you read the Word every day, and you will discover your own casket of jewels.

ACTIVITIES:

1) Make a Picture

Show the Word as a treasure chest of “jewels” from the Lord.

2) Your own copy of the Word

Do you already have your own copy of the Word? Make a special place in your room to keep it. Next to it, display one of the pictures that you have made.

Read a little bit from the Word every night before you go to bed.
