

3. The Garden of Eden

The Word of the Lord: The Old Testament for Young Children

Notes for Parents & Teachers

3. The Garden of Eden

- a. Focus on the visuals of this beautiful garden.
- b. The Lord gave them everything beautiful, so they should have been happy.
- c. Men and women need each other. We all need someone to love the most.
- d. Get children to name animals and birds, etc., as they have done in the previous chapter. Children don't mind at all repeating things.

The Lord Makes a Beautiful Garden for Adam and Eve

Then the Lord God planted a garden in Eden, and out of the ground the Lord made every tree to grow that was pretty to look at and good for food. And in the middle of the garden He planted the Tree of Life and the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. A river went through the garden to water it.

And the Lord God put Adam in the garden to look after it. And the Lord God said to the man, “You may eat from all the trees in the garden, but you may not eat from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. “

And the Lord God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make a wife to help him. So He made Eve for the man.

And the Lord God brought all the animals and birds to Adam, and the man gave names to every beast and to the birds in the heavens and to the wild animals.
