Dan-iel prayed in the morn - ing, and prayed in the eve-ning, and prayed in the af - ter - noon.

1. King Dar - i - us — loved Dan - iel and he
2. For thir - ty days the king - dom was to
3. Now Dan - iel prayed three times a day and 4. Now Dan - iel in the li - on's den was gave him a migh - ty hand, Which made the prin - ces pray — just to the king, And he who prayed to all — the prin - ces knew, But Dar - i - us — called sealed with a hea - vy stone, But all the li - on's jea - lous and they is - sued a com - mand. — And Dan - iel

God or man was thrown in the li - on's den. — out to him, "May God de - li - ver you!" — mouths were shut, for Dan - iel was not a - lone! — prayed in the morn - ing, and prayed in the eve-ning, and prayed in the af - ter - noon.
