

RELIGION PROJECTS

Designed by Lori Odhner, Wendy Hoo, and Sonia Werner

Text: I Kings 17; 18

Subject: Elijah and the Widow

Dole Notes: Volume: 3 Chapter: 73 Page: 231

Age Group: Primary: 6-8

basic supplies:

materials: • fingers cut from old gloves
(white, tan or pink)
(possibly black too)

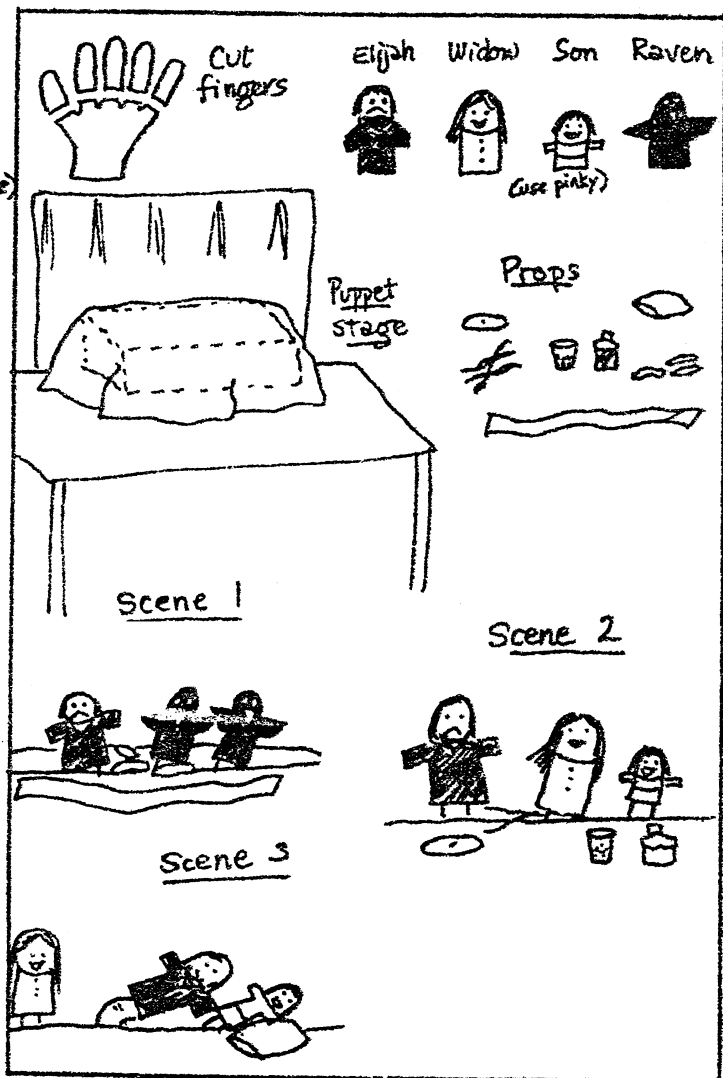

- felt & yarn scraps
- glue, scissors
- flour, small container (thimble, lid...)
- oil, small container (perfume jar...)
- sticks, bread crusts, chicken scraps, cookie (cake)
- blue ribbon or tissue (brook)
- dolls, pillow or other small cushion (bed)

teacher preparation:

- Have the 3 scenes of Chap. 17:1-24 clearly in your head
- Set up a small puppet stage (fabric on a box or table, curtain behind)

procedure:

- depending on number of children, divide up characters (could have 3 Elijahs, for instance, one for each scene, and several ravens)
- children make faces, hair and clothes on finger puppets of yarn and felt
- Using props and either direct quotes or the children's own words, act out the 3 scenes
- Could be done for parents afterward

notes: old gloves can be found at thrift shops or garage sales, or use inexpensive garden gloves

MUSIC: first songs:

Lori's tape: The eyes of all
