

Grateful Tree

On each leaf of the “Grateful Tree” draw a picture of something you are thankful for such as family, friends, your house, your toys, fun trips, or other things.

If you start wishing for things other people have, look at your grateful tree and think instead about all the things you already have.

