

Having Ears and a Voice

Read: “Give ear, O Lord to my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications. In the day of my trouble I will call upon You, for You will answer me.” Psalm 86:6-7

Reflect: In the parable of the Sower, Jesus says, “They who have ears to hear, let them hear!” He also says the good ground is like people who hear the word and understand it. We know we are supposed to listen to the Lord talking to us in His Word—to use our ears. But what about using our voices to talk to the Lord as well?

Prayer is one way of talking to the Lord. We may ask for help or tell the Lord that we are grateful for all He does. Sometimes, we sense an answer in a feeling we get, or a verse we read, or unexpected help we are given. Other times, it seems as if there is no answer. But even then the Lord is listening to us. He has an ear for our prayers, and He listens to our voice. If we can’t hear His response, perhaps we need to keep asking, keep considering what we might do, and keep listening with patience.

Respond: Set aside a few minutes to talk to the Lord. Tell Him about whatever is on your mind. He loves you and is interested in you. He will listen.

Having Ears and a Voice

Read: “Give ear, O Lord to my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications. In the day of my trouble I will call upon You, for You will answer me.” Psalm 86:6-7

Reflect: In the parable of the Sower, Jesus says, “They who have ears to hear, let them hear!” He also says the good ground is like people who hear the word and understand it. We know we are supposed to listen to the Lord talking to us in His Word—to use our ears. But what about using our voices to talk to the Lord as well?

Prayer is one way of talking to the Lord. We may ask for help or tell the Lord that we are grateful for all He does. Sometimes, we sense an answer in a feeling we get, or a verse we read, or unexpected help we are given. Other times, it seems as if there is no answer. But even then the Lord is listening to us. He has an ear for our prayers, and He listens to our voice. If we can’t hear His response, perhaps we need to keep asking, keep considering what we might do, and keep listening with patience.

Respond: Set aside a few minutes to talk to the Lord. Tell Him about whatever is on your mind. He loves you and is interested in you. He will listen.