

Living in the Present and Looking to the Future

The Lord wants us to have confidence that He is leading us to eternal happiness, but be fully involved in the process, cooperating with Him. Think about your goals for the future. What are some things that you can do to help you reach those goals? To make the best use of each new day, try to "Trust in the Lord and do good" (Psalm 37:3).