

Holy Ground Sandals

The Lord told Moses to take off his shoes because he was standing on holy ground. Shoes protect our feet, the lowest part of our bodies, from dirt. Taking shoes off pictures setting aside our most natural concerns (e.g. food, comfort) and raising our thoughts to higher spiritual concerns—to the Lord Himself. Children will take off their shoes and practice walking on “holy ground,” and then making sandals to remember that we can choose to walk on holy ground.

Materials Needed

two pieces of sturdy paper in earth-tones for printing scissors
staples copy of stencil (over) long piece of yarn or string tied in a circle

Directions

1. What did the Lord tell Moses to do as he walked closer to see the burning bush? (To take off his shoes.)
2. How do shoes protect our feet? When do you take off your shoes? Moses’ shoes protected his feet in the mountains. The Lord told him to take his shoes off because he was on “holy ground”. Create Invite children to stretch out a large circle of yarn or string on the floor so that that the whole class can step into it. Stepping inside the circle means stepping on “holy ground”.
3. Have all children take two or more steps back from the circle and take off their shoes.
4. Now all stand and face the center of the circle. Say, “This circle is for a special person in our class. Everyone who is loved by the Lord take one step forward. Everyone who is like Moses and wants to listen to the Lord take one step forward. If you are sometimes brave, and want to help the Lord do great things in your life, just like Moses, take a step into the circle.”
5. By now everyone should be in the circle. “Look at all the special people in this class! When we are like Moses, and try to do good things, it is like we are standing on “holy ground.”
6. Finish by making sandals as a reminder that the true ideas in the Lord’s Word that protect our feet as we walk in His Way. Follow Holy Ground Sandals Directions to complete the activity.
