

The Sacrifice of Isaac

Help children remember the story and learn that the Lord provides what we need when we try to obey Him.

Supplies included:

1 printed page
1 piece of sturdy blue paper
oil pastels or crayons scissors
glue

Project instructions:

1. Using a grey oil pastel or crayon, draw twelve oval shapes for a stone altar on one side of the blue paper. Leave plenty of room above the altar for the sticks and flames.
2. Using a brown oil pastel or crayon make some sticks of wood on the top of the altar.
3. Draw yellow and orange flames on top of the sticks
4. Color some green grass and bushes around the altar.
5. Color one of the rams on the printed page and cut it out. (Multiples are provided for groups.)
6. Glue the ram in the bushes near the altar.

