

Reflect on a Passage from the Word

Read a passage from the Lord's Word and then try writing about it, letting the words flow freely as your pen moves across the paper. Don't edit your thought process or let yourself stop writing until you have filled a whole page. Now read over what you wrote. Has this "free writing" helped you understand the passage better or given you insights into how it might be applied in your life?