

How can we become more appreciative of the Lord's gifts to us, both spiritual and natural?

Try to write something to express your gratitude to the Lord. Ways to start could be reflecting on the beauty and marvels of creation or thinking about how the truths of the Word have shaped your world-view and defined your goals in life.

