

Story of Joseph Strips for Sequencing

Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, and he made Joseph a tunic of many colors.

Joseph's brothers took his tunic of many colors and put him into a pit.

After Joseph was put in prison, he interpreted dreams for the butler, the baker, and then Pharaoh.

Joseph had a dream that the sun, moon, and eleven stars bowed down to him.

Joseph was sold as a slave in Egypt and worked for Potiphar.

Joseph said, "I am Joseph your brother whom you sold into Egypt. God sent me before you to preserve life."

Pharaoh made Joseph ruler over all of Egypt to gather food in the years of plenty and sell it in the years of famine.
