

WHEN VERY EARLY IN THE DAWN

mp 1. When ve-ry ear-ly in the dawn weep-ing they came and found Him mp 2. So in His tri-umph may we see hope of e - ter-nal vic-to - mf 3. Come, all ye peo-ple, clap your hands; break in - to sing-ing, all ye gone, lo, an an-gel shone be-fore them; O seek Him not a-mong the ry; He is ris - en, God of glo-ry. Let fear and death and mor-tal lands! Al-le-lu - ia! Al-le-lu - ia! With trumpets and a might-y dead, for He is ris - en as He said. — strife sur - ren - der to the Lord of life. — Al-le-lu - ia! Al-le-voice let earth and heav-en now re - joice. — lu - ia! Al-le - lu - ia! Al-le - lu - ia! Al-le - lu - ia!

Elsa Synnestvedt (1897–1947)

"Lasst Uns Erfreuen," Geistliche Kirchengesänge, 1623;
 arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906