

The First Fruits of Our Land We Bring to GOD

Supplies:

Yellow construction paper
Red construction paper
White paper
Red ribbon or a piece of red felt
Fruit stickers (optional)

1. Cut an altar out of white paper and glue it onto the yellow construction paper. You can use the shape below or make your own.
2. Glue a small square of red construction paper on the center of the altar for the cover of the Word.
3. Glue a white square in the center of the red square as pages.
4. Glue the ribbon or felt in the center of the "Word" as a bookmark.
5. Have the children write "LORD" in the center of the "Word".
6. Either have the children draw fruits or stick fruit stickers around the "Word".
7. Have an adult write on the title "The first fruits of our land we bring to GOD" or have printed out slips that the children can glue on.

You can also teach the children the song "The First Fruits Of Our Land We Bring"
