Designed by Lori Odhner, Wendy Hoo, and Sonia Werner

Text: John 3: 1-21

Subject: The Lord and Nicodemus

Dole Notes: Volume: 6 Chapter: 138 Page: 33

Age Group: Junior, 9-11

basic supplies:

materials:

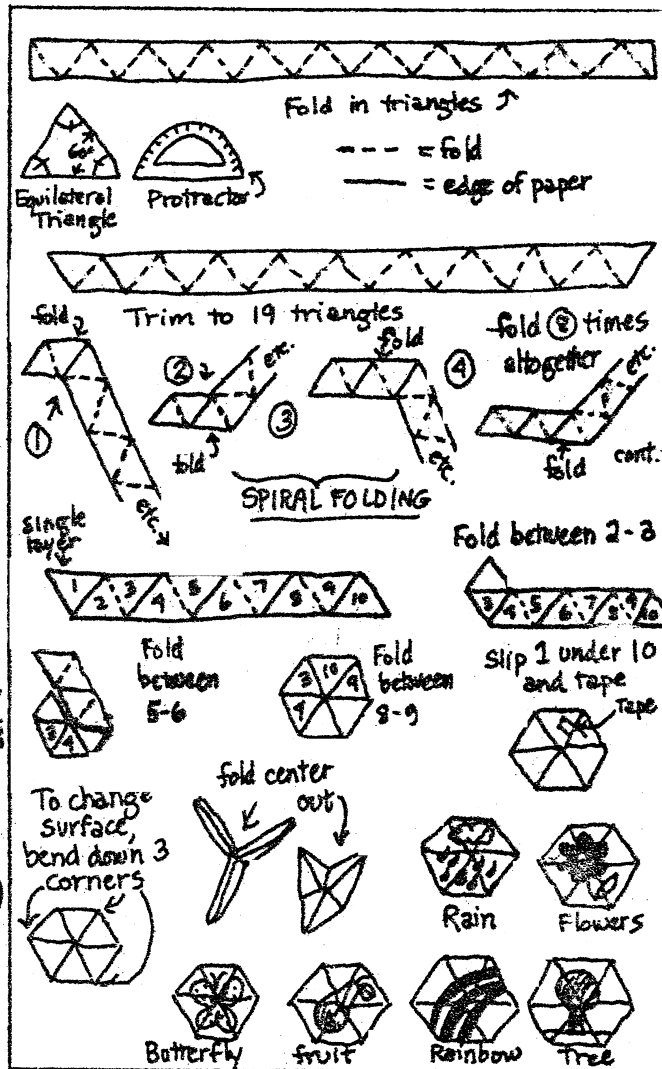

- heavy white paper (large)
- scissors, ruler
- protractors
- thin markers
- tape, pencils

teacher preparation:

- read TCR 687, and have in mind (or write a list of) the vivid descriptions of regeneration there
- make sample
- cut paper into strips, just under 2" wide, and 23" long

procedure:

- using protractors to get a 60° angle, fold paper strip into equilateral triangles (try to fold carefully)
- you need 19 triangles ~ trim off extra
- fold along fold lines in a spiral, up and down (now it will be 10 triangles long)
- lightly in pencil, number these 10 triangles (the single layer being "1")
- fold between triangles 2-3, triangles 5-6, and triangles 8-9 such that 2 & 3 fold away from each other, 5 & 6 fold facing each other, and 8 & 9 fold away.
- fold down triangle 10 & tape (numbered sides on outside) to triangle 1
- now by bending 3 outside corners in so they touch, and folding inside out you will change the surface of triangles
- there are 6 surfaces altogether (you may have to experiment awhile to find them)
- on each of the 6 surfaces, draw an image of regeneration from TCR

NOTES: the "unending circle" of folding and the illustrations are meant to demonstrate the cycle of regeneration; you could draw the pictures on each of the triangles of a surface to make more of a kaleidoscope (this solves the problem of the triangles sometimes inverting)
