

THE SUN SHINES IN SPLENDOR

1. The sun shines in splen - dor, and blue is the sky.
2. Then lift up your voic - es, ye chil - dren of men.

The birds all are sing - ing with joy as they fly.
Your hearts lift in an - thems of wor - ship a - gain.

The riv - ers are wind - ing be - tween wood - ed shores.
For we, too, will praise Him, the Fa - ther of love,

The whole world of na - ture its Mak - er a - does.
Who send - eth His pow - er and grace from a - bove.
