

Write a Story about the Lord Answering Someone's Prayer

This kind of story can be a powerful way to illustrate the truth that the Lord answers all of our prayers. Your story can be entirely made up, based on personal experience, or inspired by the experiences of friends or family. Looking at the questions below may also be helpful in writing your story.

- Does the Lord tell us what we should do?
- Does reading the Word help us hear the Lord's answers to prayer?
- Will the answer to our prayer come immediately after we pray?
- Does the Lord always give us what we ask for? Why or why not?
- Might the Lord's answer be "No"?
- Are there times when the Lord answers our prayer without us being consciously aware of the answer? Perhaps by giving us a renewed sense of hope or inspiration about how to deal with a problem?
